

SKINNED AGED COUPLE

Arno T. Roner, real estate dealer, member of the Chicago Real Estate Board and the Association of Commerce, has confessed to forging a trust deed of the face value of $1,600, and selling it to an aged couple for $1,200—their life savings.

State's Attorney Wayman believes that widespread frauds may be back of this one deed, for Roner has been in business in Chicago for 20 years, and has a large business. Wayman may seize Roner's books and institute a thorough investigation.

When confronted with the facts in the case in his office by detectives, Roner admitted the forgery, and drew a check for $1,200 in favor of Miss Clara Kirschling, daughter of the couple to whom Roner sold the deed, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kirschling, of 1413 Wrightwood ave.

COUPLE OUTWIT DAD

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—Alfred Calandra made a bad mistake. He found his daughter, Jeannette, 14, with the lover he had forbidden her to see, Nicola Allen, 21.

Being a man of action, he went for Allen, knocked him unconscious, and then laid his daughter across his knee and gave her a sound spanking.

Then the police came and took Alfred to jail. It took him 12 hours to explain things, and by the time he had done so, the girl and Allen had disappeared.
